

Large Vintage Bespoke Kneehole Desk, English, Oak, Writing Table, Mid Century

DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # 25492

This is a large vintage kneehole desk. An English, oak panelled writing table, dating to the late 20th century, circa 1970. Crafted to a high standard, this bespoke drawing room desk offers excellent proportion, refined detail and the warmth of golden oak – ideal for the traditional study or home office.

- Superior craftsmanship in quality golden oak stocks, showing fine grain interest
- Generous proportion with a wide kneehole opening for comfortable seating
- Arranged as a pair of drawer banks, each with four drawers for ample storage
 - Inset leather skiver with lightly timeworn charm, tooled and embossed for distinction
- Drawer fronts dressed with circular brass pulls and inset locks – keys absent
- Fully panelled rear fascia allows for central room placement with privacy and style
- Adorned throughout with a bold, field panel motif and traditional forms
- Standing upon continuous plinth feet for stability and visual grounding

A substantial and elegant example of superior 20th century office furniture, this vintage kneehole desk presents wonderfully for daily use or as a statement feature. Perfect for the discerning interior ...
