

Antique Rocking Chair, American, Shaker Number 7 Rocker, Edwardian, Circa 1910

DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # 25490

This is an antique shawl back rocking chair. An American, ash and pine rocker crafted by The Shakers of Mount Lebanon, dating to the Edwardian period, circa 1910. A beautifully preserved example of the revered Shaker Number 7 rocking chair, offering both historic provenance and superb form.

- Delightful example of early 20th century Shaker furniture, with enduring character
- Fascinating maker's label adorns the rocker with a motif of the chair itself
- Crafted in ash and pine, displaying warm caramel and golden biscuit hues
- Distinctive rolled crest rail sits atop a series of four shaped back splats
- Fascinating swept arms, terminating in bold knuckles with domed disc detail
- Raised upon double stretcher rails, providing excellent strength and stability
- Gently arched, ski-shaped rocker rails deliver a graceful and even motion
- Finished with a quality woven rush seat, taut and in pleasing order
- Number 7 model – a classic of the Mount Lebanon Shaker community, New York

Search London Fine for #25490 , or scan the QR code for more photos and details

DIMENSIONS

Max Width: 64.5cm (25.5")
 Max Depth: 77.5cm (30.5")
 Max Height: 102cm (40.25")
 Seat Width: 51.5cm (20.25")
 Seat Depth: 49cm (19.25")
 Seat Height: 39.5cm (15.5")

