

Antique Telescope, English, 6-Draw, Brass, Leather, Terrestrial, Victorian, 1860

DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # 25437

This is an antique telescope, an English six-draw terrestrial or maritime instrument, dating to the Victorian period, circa 1860.

Perfect for bird watching, landscape appreciation, wildlife, or maritime observation. Equally suitable for observing the night sky.

<li class="p1">A pleasingly rare six-draw configuration, seldom seen in Victorian field optics

<li class="p1">Crafted in lightly aged brass, displaying a rich golden patina across the tubes

<li class="p1">Primary barrel dressed in a gently time-worn leather jacket, offering tactile charm

<li class="p1">Features a sliding sun shade to the objective end, enhancing clarity in bright conditions

<li class="p1">Swivel dust cover to the eyepiece for protection when not in use

<li class="p1">Smooth draw action throughout, with a well-engineered mechanical feel

<li class="p1">Designed for terrestrial observation or recreational maritime use
