

Antique Telescope, English, 6-Draw, Brass, Leather, Terrestrial, Victorian, 1860

DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # 25437

This is an antique telescope, an English six-draw terrestrial or maritime instrument, dating to the Victorian period, circa 1860.

Perfect for bird watching, landscape appreciation, wildlife, or maritime observation. Equally suitable for observing the night sky.

- A pleasingly rare six-draw configuration, seldom seen in Victorian field optics
- Crafted in lightly aged brass, displaying a rich golden patina across the tubes
- Primary barrel dressed in a gently time-worn leather jacket, offering tactile charm
  - Features a sliding sun shade to the objective end, enhancing clarity in bright conditions

- Swivel dust cover to the eyepiece for protection when not in use
- Smooth draw action throughout, with a well-engineered mechanical feel
- Designed for terrestrial observation or recreational maritime use

- Supplied with a London Fine oak and brass 'Captain's Stand' for display
