Antique Tribal Side Table, African, Fruitwood, Stool, Lamp Stand, Victorian, Luo

DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # 25533

This is an antique tribal side table, an African fruitwood occasional stool or lamp table, dating to the late Victorian period, circa 1900.

class="p1">Distinctive tribal side table, redolent of Luo craftsmanship from Kenya Crafted in solid fruitwood, with fine grain interest and rich russet hues Circular top adorned with a charming coral bead motif, displaying naive artistry

class="p1">Stands upon a quartet of shaped legs, terminating in rounded circular feet class="p1">Presents a wonderfully rustic aesthetic, with a tactile, time-worn finish class="p1">Displays excellent colour throughout, enhanced by decades of gentle ageing class="p1">Ideal as a side table, display stand, or decorative accent piece

An appealing addition to ethnographic collections, bohemian interiors, or rustic lodges

A captivating piece of African tribal artistry, this antique fruitwood table offers authenticity and character perfect for those seeking unique period furnishings. Solid

DIMENSIONS

Max Width: 46cm (18") Max Depth: 46cm (18") Max Height: 39cm (15.25") joints and construction, delivered ready for the home.