DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # 25389

This is an antique presentation serving tray. An English, silver plated cocktail or aperitif tray, dating to the Edwardian period, circa 1910.

<li class="p1">Elegant Edwardian serving tray, ideal for cocktail gatherings or afternoon soirees

<li class="p1">Crafted in quality silver plate, presenting bright, reflective tones throughout

<li class="p1">Lightly aged patina enhances the delicate fretwork pattern across the surface

<li class="p1">Subtle signs of gentle polishing lend character to the timeworn silver finish

<li class="p1">Features inset butler's grasps at each end for ease of handling and serving

<li class="p1">Unmarked as such, yet reminiscent of the fine craftsmanship from Mappin & Webb

<li class="p1">Suited for use as a drinks tray, canapé platter, or decorative presentation piece

<li class="p1">A distinctive addition to period interiors, country kitchens, or formal dining rooms
