

Pair of Antique Presentation Serving Dishes, Indian Silver Plate Bowl, Victorian

DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # 25508

This is a pair of antique presentation serving dishes. An Indian, silver plated decorative bowl with relief detail and fish motif to centre, dating to the early Victorian period, circa 1850.

- Striking Indian serving bowls, rich in detail and character
- Crafted in quality Indian silver plate, displaying a charming time-worn patina
- Unmarked as such, but crafted in the Cutch repousse style
- Each dish features a central medallion of three intertwined fish
- Surrounded by a swirled petal motif, offering a captivating radial design
- Fishing is a prominent industry in Kerala, Tamil and West Bengal
- Interior enhanced with ornate chased detailing, adding depth and texture
- Gently domed form with a shallow lip, ideal for presentation or decorative display
- Lightly aged finish adds authenticity and vintage appeal

Search London Fine for #25508 , or scan the QR code for more photos and details

DIMENSIONS

Max Width: 26cm (10.25")

Max Depth: 26cm (10.25")

Max Height: 6.5cm (2.5")

LIST PRICE

£1,495.00

