

Vintage Port Decanter, English, Cut Glass, Silver, Sherry, Hallmark, Mid Century

DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # 25099

This is a vintage Port decanter. An English, cut glass and silver collared sherry or spirit vessel, hallmarked for 1952.

- Elegant mid-century decanter with strong drawing room or buffet presentation appeal

- Crafted in quality cut glass, showcasing a bright, clear appearance throughout
- Distinctive diamond cut pattern enhances the bulbed lower body, catching light beautifully
- Glass facets throw appealing spectral colour under natural or artificial lighting

- Fitted with a gadrooned ball stopper, seating neatly within the silver collar
- Collar hallmarked to the Birmingham Assay Office, date letter C for 1952
- Bears the optional 'Coronation' Queen's mark, commemorating Queen Elizabeth II's ascension

- Finished with a delightful starburst cut pattern to the base
- Lightly timeworn condition with minimal signs of careful, decades-long use

Search London Fine for #25099 , or scan the QR code for more photos and details

DIMENSIONS

Max Width: 10.5cm (4.25")

Max Depth: 10.5cm (4.25")

Max Height: 26.5cm (10.5")

