

Vintage Rotary Centre Table, English, Walnut, Leather, Games, Regency Revival

DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # 25547

This is a vintage rotary centre table. An English, walnut and specimen wood inlaid game or writing table in Regency revival taste, dating to the late 20th century, circa 1970.

<li class="p1">Fascinating Regency revival table with a striking rotary top and elegant form

<li class="p1">Crafted in walnut with select specimen wood inlay of mahogany, oak and satinwood

<li class="p1">Inlaid top displays an intricate radial polygonal pattern with fine figuring and rich caramel hues

<li class="p1">Fine leather skiver to centre - lightly aged with embossed detail

<li class="p1">Distinctive drum profile hosting three opening drawers, intersected with faux fascia panels

<li class="p1">Dressed with circular brass drop handles, lending period authenticity

<li class="p1">Drawer interiors finished in an eye-catching green paint, adding a discreet charm

<li class="p1">Rotary top articulates upon a broad spindle, with a protective green baize cover for the support stand

<li class="p1">Base is supported by a trio of broad cabriole legs, terminating in brass paw feet

DIMENSIONS

Max Width: 74cm (29.25")

Max Depth: 74cm (29.25")

Max Height: 75.5cm (29.75")

Kneehole Height: 63.5cm (25")

LIST PRICE

£1,850.00

