

Vintage Pair of Binoculars, Scottish, Racecourse Spotter's Glasses, Leather Case

DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # 25440

This is a vintage pair of binoculars. A Scottish, enamelled brass racecourse spotter's binocular with leather case, dating to the early 20th century, circa 1930.

<li class="p1">Fascinating set of vintage binoculars, steeped in horse racing provenance
<li class="p1">Enamelled brass construction with lightly time-worn patina from decades of use

<li class="p1">Crisp black enamel presents well, with gentle signs of regular handling

<li class="p1">Engraved 'Prismatique Lumina' - a model by Lennie of Edinburgh

<li class="p1">Glass optics intact, suitable for display or light use in original condition

<li class="p1">Housed in a charming tan leather case, complete with shoulder strap and button clasp

<li class="p1">Case strap embellished with a superb collection of 1960s Lingfield Park Club entry tickets

<li class="p1">Tickets reference the famed Lingfield Park Racecourse in Surrey, adding historic interest

<li class="p1">An appealing collectable for racing enthusiasts, sporting memorabilia collectors or interior display

DIMENSIONS

Case Width: 16.5cm (6.5")

Case Depth: 6.5cm (2.5")

Case Height: 14cm (5.5")

Binoculars Width: 13.5cm (5.25")

Binoculars Depth: 4cm (1.5")

Binoculars Height: 12.5cm (5")

LIST PRICE

£695.00

