

Vintage Pair of Binoculars, Scottish, Racecourse Spotter's Glasses, Leather Case

DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # 25440

This is a vintage pair of binoculars. A Scottish, enamelled brass racecourse spotter's binocular with leather case, dating to the early 20th century, circa 1930.

- Fascinating set of vintage binoculars, steeped in horse racing provenance
- Enamelled brass construction with lightly time-worn patina from decades of use
- Crisp black enamel presents well, with gentle signs of regular handling
- Engraved 'Prismatique Lumina' - a model by Lennie of Edinburgh
- Glass optics intact, suitable for display or light use in original condition
- Housed in a charming tan leather case, complete with shoulder strap and button clasp
- Case strap embellished with a superb collection of 1960s Lingfield Park Club entry tickets
- Tickets reference the famed Lingfield Park Racecourse in Surrey, adding historic interest
- An appealing collectable for racing enthusiasts, sporting memorabilia collectors or interior display
