

Pair of Antique Glove Boxes, Japanese Lacquered Lidded Dishes, Victorian, C.1900

DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # 25487
This is a pair of antique glove boxes. A Japanese, lacquered lidded dish, dating to the late Victorian period, circa 1900.

- Delightfully decorative Japanese glove boxes with superb oriental elegance
- Presented in striking cinnabar red and ochre tones upon a deep black lacquer ground
- Each lid fits neatly over the shallow tray base, ideal for light storage or display
- Distinctive scenes depict Mount Fuji rising in the distance
- Foregrounds enriched with temple buildings, winding trees, and traditional landscapes
- Useful as decorative jewellery boxes, oriental curios, or simply as display accents
- Gently timeworn with a charming aged patina, commensurate with careful historic handling

A fine pair of late Victorian Japanese glove boxes, brimming with character and artistry – perfect for collectors of oriental antiques or to grace a well-appointed dressing table. Delivered ready for the home.
