

Antique Embroidered Panel, English, Framed Silkwork, Baroque Taste, Victorian

DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # 25495

This is an antique embroidered panel. An English, framed silkwork after Margarethe Helm, dating to the late Victorian period, circa 1890.

- Delightful example of Baroque needlework, inspired by Margarethe Helm's pattern book of 1725
- Presented behind glass within a tasteful ebonised frame, adorned with gilt flower detail
- Executed in fine satin and couched stitching, set against a brick stitched background for texture
- Decorative foliate scene with expressive tones and period charm
- Well-suited for hallways, reception rooms, or country house interiors
- A fine showcase of late 19th century needlework, reviving 18th century taste
- Dressed to the rear with mounting wire for ease of wall hanging
- Offers a refined and elegant focal point with decorative and historical appeal

A beautifully framed Victorian silkwork panel, this piece brings together artistic craftsmanship and Baroque revival styling, ideal for the discerning collector or interior designer. Delivered ready for the home.

+44 (0) 207 1833 511

Search London Fine for #25495, or scan the QR code for more photos and details

DIMENSIONS

- Max Width: 46cm (18")
- Max Depth: 3cm (1.25")
- Max Height: 62.5cm (24.5")
- Panel Width: 40.5cm (16")
- Panel Height: 57.5cm (22.75")

LIST PRICE

£1,295.00

