

Antique Jewellery Table, French, Walnut, Side, Occasional, Victorian, Circa 1890

DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # 25584

This is an antique jewellery table. A French, walnut and boxwood side or work table, dating to the late Victorian period, circa 1890.

- Exuding undeniable French elegance, displaying exceptional craftsmanship, fine materials and decorative flourish
- Select walnut stocks showing beautiful grain interest and warm caramel hues
- Quarter bookmatched lid with boxwood inlay, featuring a superb scrolled foliate motif
- Lid opens to reveal a fitted interior with a gilt edged mirror

- Quality bevelled mirror plate displays a bright reflection with minimal foxing
- Interior replete with a removable sliding tray hosting three compartments
- Shaped fascia hosts an inset, brass lined lock — key present
- Standing gracefully upon a quartet of cabriole legs, each terminating in a delightful pad foot

Of useful proportion and ideal as a jewellery table, side table or elegant work table, this is a most charming late Victorian example offering refined style and practical storage for the dressing room or reception space. Solid joints and construction, delivered ready for use.
