

Vintage Book, By The Clock of St James's, Percy Armitage, Literary Memoir, 1927

DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # 25355

This is a vintage copy of By The Clock of St James's by Percy Armitage, published in 1927 and originally compiled during the Victorian and Edwardian periods. A bound and illustrated memoir, the work explores military and social themes with wit and observation, offering readers an engaging insight into the period. Presented in intact, original order with light markings, this edition retains its authentic character and charm.

- Bound in cloth over board, with gilt titling lending a refined presentation
- A memoir-style volume, weaving together military and social themes
- Illustrated throughout, complementing the text with visual context
- Published across 370 pages, a substantial and engaging read

- Originally compiled in the Victorian and Edwardian eras, offering period insight
- Retains intact binding and original order, with only light age-appropriate markings
 - A fascinating volume for collectors of English literature, memoirs, and military history

- Well-suited for display in a personal library, study, or gentleman's reading room

DIMENSIONS

Max Width: 15cm (6")
Max Depth: 4.5cm (1.75")
Max Height: 22cm (8.75")

LIST PRICE

£245.00

This vintage 1927 copy of By The Clock of St James's by Percy Armitage is a distinguished memoir, ...

+44 (0) 207 1833 511
Search London Fine for #25355

or scan the QR code for more photos and details
London Fine Ltd
The Antique Village
The Old Whiteways Cider Factory
Hele, Devon, EX5 4PW

sales@londonfine.co.uk
E. & O. E.