

The Domesday Book, Sussex Archaeological Society, Antique Historical Reference

DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # 25277

A fine antique copy of The Domesday Book, transcribed and published by the Sussex Archaeological Society in 1886. This superb late Victorian reproduction presents the historic Sussex entries of the Domesday survey in both English and Latin, offering an invaluable insight into the medieval landscape of England. A remarkable example of Victorian scholarship, this edition is presented in intact, original order with light age markings, commensurate with over a century of careful handling. A highly desirable addition for collectors of antiquarian books, historians, and enthusiasts of England's medieval heritage.

<li class="p1">Antique transcription of The Domesday Book by the Sussex Archaeological Society

<li class="p1">Published in 1886 during the late Victorian period

<li class="p1">Features parallel English and Latin texts, showcasing faithful transcription

<li class="p1">Dedicated entirely to the Sussex entries of the historic Domesday survey of 1086

<li class="p1">A fascinating reproduction of England's earliest and most significant land record

<li class="p1">Presented in intact, original order with light markings, reflecting careful

0207 207 1833 511

<li class="p1">Bound in ...

Search London Fine for #25277

DIMENSIONS

Max Width: 29cm (11.5")

Max Depth: 2.5cm (1")

Max Height: 38cm (15")

LIST PRICE

£355.00

