

Antique Heraldic Lion Doorstop, English, Cast Iron Door Keeper, Victorian, 1890

DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # 25605

This is an antique heraldic lion doorstop. An English, painted cast iron door keeper, dating to the late Victorian period, circa 1890. A wonderfully regal decorative piece, both functional and full of period charm.

- Delightful Victorian doorstop, with a charming decorative appeal
- Crafted from cast iron in the form of a heraldic lion rampant
- Finished in Old English white, with a gentle, timeworn patina
- Minor weathering commensurate with age enhances its antique appeal
- Substantial weight of 6.51kg, ideal for holding medium sized doors
- Nicely detailed casting with a strong decorative presence

This antique cast iron lion doorstop makes a bold and practical addition to any interior, offering both utility and heraldic character in a single piece. Delivered ready for the home.
