

Antique Document Sleeve, English, Stationery Box, Desk, Office, Georgian, C.1800

DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # 25619
This is an antique document sleeve. An English stationery box in mahogany and satinwood marquetry, dating to the Georgian period, circa 1800. A fine example of late 18th century craftsmanship, notable for its star motif inlay and refined proportions.

- Charming Georgian stationery box, circa 1800
- Select stocks present fine grain interest with warm caramel and biscuit hues
- Shallow lid sits neatly above the sleeved interior, ideal for receipts, letters, or small documents
- Perfectly sized interior for safe keeping of Crown Octavo sized documents - common in the Georgian era
- Fascia adorned with a bold star medallion, inlaid in contrasting satinwood with brown and saffron tones
 - Satinwood inlay provides a delicate lightness, accentuating the rich mahogany casework
 - Marquetry design enhances the refined and classical Georgian aesthetic
 - In good order with light, sympathetic ageing commensurate with use
