

Antique Football Rattle, English, Elm, Sporting Memorabilia, Treen, Victorian

DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # 25632

This is an antique football rattle. An English, elm and oak signalling ratchet, dating to the Victorian period, circa 1880. A nostalgic piece of sporting memorabilia, evoking the excitement of late 19th century match days.

- Crafted from elm with deep caramel hues and fine grain interest
- Turned and tactile oak handle, with lighter caramel tones
- Pair of long, flexible teeth engaging a rotary cog wheel for loud effect
- Produces a distinctive, prominent noise, once familiar at Cup Finals and big matches
- Robustly made and designed to withstand enthusiastic use
- A fine collector's piece of sporting history or unique decorative display

This Victorian football rattle offers a charming glimpse into the heritage of English sport, presenting both as a functional curiosity and evocative piece of memorabilia from the formative years of association football. Delivered ready to enjoy.

Search London Fine for #25632 , or scan the QR code for more photos and details

DIMENSIONS

Max Width: 28cm (11")

Max Depth: 6.5cm (2.5")

Max Height: 27cm (10.75")

