

Antique Mr Punch Doorstop, English, Painted Figure, Door Keeper, Victorian, 1880

DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # 25656

This is a fascinating antique Mr Punch doorstop. An English, painted cast iron figural door keeper, dating to the Victorian period, circa 1880. A colourful representation of the iconic puppet character, adding a visual flourish to any doorway.

- Excellent cast figure - pleasingly painted, with a bold character expression
- Depicts the classic Mr Punch in traditional attire - a whimsical nod to Victorian entertainment
- Crafted in quality cast iron, with good definition and an eye-catching appearance
- Lightly time worn paint with a palette of colourful reds, blues and yellows
- Mr. Punch sits atop a pile of books, a faithful dog by his side
- Slyly, the figure is shown 'cocking a snook' with his left hand against his nose
- Dressed in fine robes, his right hand holding a feathered quill and piece of paper
- Appealing weight in the hand at 3.656kg (8.06 lb), well-suited for holding interior or exterior doors
- Flat rear profile for close placement against a door or wall
