

Small Vintage Dice Pot, English, Cedar, Games, Keepsake Box, Treen, Circa 1930

DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # 25434

This is a small vintage dice pot. An English, turned cedar gaming or lidded keepsake box, dating to the early 20th century, circa 1930. A delightful piece of treenware with fine grain interest and warm tones.

- Crafted from quality cedar, presenting fine grain and warm caramel hues
- Turned treenware craftsmanship with an appealing tactile quality
- Screw top lid ensures contents are kept safe and secure
- Smooth, natural finish feels comfortable in the hand
- Ideal as a gaming dice holder or as a small keepsake container

This English vintage dice pot is a superb example of early 20th century treenware, offering both practical use and decorative charm for the gaming table or collector's cabinet. Delivered ready for the home or on the go.

Search London Fine for #25434 , or scan the QR code for more photos and details

DIMENSIONS

Max Width: 9.5cm (3.75")
Max Depth: 9.5cm (3.75")
Max Height: 8.5cm (3.25")
Internal Diameter: 7cm (2.75")

