

Small Antique Shooting Peg Case, English, Silver Plate, Marker Box, Victorian

DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # 25633

This is a small antique shooting peg case. An English, silver plated butt marker box, dating to the late Victorian period, circa 1900. A charming and highly collectible piece of shooting memorabilia, pocket-sized and full of character.

- Silver plated hinged case with a gently time-worn finish
- Lid opens to reveal eight numbered pegs, each topped with a small finial
- Pegs engraved with numerals 1 through 8 for game shooting positions
- Traditionally used to assign starting locations for driven game shoots
- Equally suitable for use in numerical 'chance' games or as a decorative collectible
- Delightfully small and pocketable, exuding undeniable period charm

This antique butt marker box is a fascinating addition for collectors of shooting memorabilia, or as a unique conversation piece within a country sporting collection. Delivered ready to enjoy.

Search London Fine for #25633 , or scan the QR code for more photos and details

DIMENSIONS

Max Width: 6cm (2.25")

Max Depth: 1cm (.5")

Max Height: 4cm (1.5")

LIST PRICE

£795.00

