

Antique Cribbage Board, English, Traditional Gaming Peg Base, Victorian, C.1900

DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # 25620

This is an antique Cribbage board. An English, mahogany and brass gaming peg base, dating to the late Victorian period, circa 1900. Wonderfully presented, it offers superb warmth of tone and enduring appeal for gaming enthusiasts and collectors alike.

- Crafted from select mahogany stocks with fine grain and warm caramel hues
- Brass peg plate presents bright golden tonality with lasting quality
- Six well-defined pegging sections, neatly divided with engraved lines
- Smooth playing surface with tactile finish, pleasing in the hand
- Protective suede leather covering to the base for stable placement
- Displays excellent proportion for use or decorative presentation
- Traditionally, the peg of choice was matchsticks, readily available in any parlour or tavern

A delightful piece of Victorian gaming history, this antique Cribbage board would make a fine addition to a games collection, an ideal tabletop accessory, or a thoughtful gift for a card and Cribbage enthusiast. Delivered ready to enjoy.
