

Vintage Butter Dish, English, Ceramic, Countertop, Dairy Keeper, Mid Century

DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # 25365

This is a vintage butter dish. An English, ceramic countertop dairy keeper, dating to the mid 20th century, circa 1960. A delightful kitchen or table accessory with classic blue and white charm.

<li class="p1">Decorative blue and white motif, inspired by early 19th century English design

<li class="p1">Lidded dish set over a saucer with butter enclosure to the centre

<li class="p1">In good original order, with a clean presentation

<li class="p1">The lid decorated with a figural scene, rich in nostalgic appeal

<li class="p1">Foliate pattern accentuates the wavy-edged saucer for a pleasing finish

<li class="p1">Dish centre of 9cm diameter, rising to 3cm in height from the base

<li class="p1">Maker's mark to base for Palissy, Staffordshire

A wonderful example of traditional English ceramic artistry, this vintage butter dish offers both decorative appeal and everyday practicality – a charming addition to any country kitchen or vintage table setting. Delivered ready for the home.

Search London Fine for # , or scan the QR code for more photos and details

DIMENSIONS

Max Width: 17cm (6.75")

Max Depth: 17cm (6.75")

Max Height: 7cm (2.75")

Butter Tray Diameter: 9cm (3.5")

Butter Tray Height: 3cm (1.25")

LIST PRICE

£395.00

