

Vintage Butter Dish, English, Ceramic, Countertop, Dairy Keeper, Mid Century

DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # 25365

This is a vintage butter dish. An English, ceramic countertop dairy keeper, dating to the mid 20th century, circa 1960. A delightful kitchen or table accessory with classic blue and white charm.

- Decorative blue and white motif, inspired by early 19th century English design
- Lidded dish set over a saucer with butter enclosure to the centre
- In good original order, with a clean presentation
- The lid decorated with a figural scene, rich in nostalgic appeal
- Foliate pattern accentuates the wavy-edged saucer for a pleasing finish
- Dish centre of 9cm diameter, rising to 3cm in height from the base
- Maker's mark to base for Palissy, Staffordshire

A wonderful example of traditional English ceramic artistry, this vintage butter dish offers both decorative appeal and everyday practicality – a charming addition to any country kitchen or vintage table setting. Delivered ready for the home.
