

Antique Dandy's Walking Cane, English, Stick, Ebonised, Victorian, 1889 Hallmark

DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # 18.8195

This is an antique Dandy's walking cane. An English, gentleman's stick in ebonised mahogany with a silver handle, dating to the late Victorian period, and hallmarked in 1889. A superb accessory of refinement and taste, exuding period charm and distinction.

<li class="p1">Dashing late Victorian gentleman's cane, perfect for display or refined personal use

<li class="p1">Ebonised mahogany barrel displaying a deep black hue with subtle grain beneath the polish

<li class="p1">Silver handle adorned with an elegant foliate motif, lightly time worn from careful handling

<li class="p1">Hallmarked in London, with the date letter 'O' for 1889 confirming the late Victorian origin

<li class="p1">Maker's initials appear to read BN or RN, possibly for Benjamin Norton or Robert Nash respectively

<li class="p1">Brass ferrule to the tip provides a durable and decorative finish

<li class="p1">A tactile and stylish example of 19th century craftsmanship, ideal for collectors or display in a period setting

DIMENSIONS

Max Width: 3.5cm (1.5")

Max Depth: 3.5cm (1.5")

Max Length: 92cm (36.25")

LIST PRICE

£695.00

