

Vintage Turntable Display Stand, Danish, HiFi Cabinet, Kofod Larsen, Mid Century

DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # 25597

This is a large vintage turntable display stand. A Danish, rosewood media or hifi cabinet with storage drawers by Ib Kofod Larsen for Faarup Møbelfabrik, dating to the mid 20th century, circa 1960

A superb example of mid-century Scandinavian craftsmanship, this vintage rosewood HiFi cabinet by the renowned Danish designer Ib Kofod Larsen for Faarup offers elegance, warmth and practicality in equal measure. Perfectly suited for the stylish audio enthusiast, this fine piece presents exceptional design details and a rich patina developed over six decades.

- Exceptional Danish mid century design, celebrating Scandinavian minimalism with refined, modernist proportions
- Crafted in select rosewood with striking grain interest and warm caramel hues
- Generous upper surface providing ample space for a turntable and speakers
- Two deep drawers below offering superb storage for vinyl records, cartridges, and cassettes

- Upper drawer divided into three compartments, ideal for media accessories
- Drawers fitted with original bakelite pull handles – tactile and characteristic of the period also upon a solid black plinth base, creating a light a ...

Search London Fine for #25597 , or scan the QR code for more photos and details

DIMENSIONS

Max Width: 115cm (45.25")

Max Depth: 58cm (22.75")

Max Height: 55cm (21.75")

Lower Drawer Depth: 50.5cm (20")

Lower Drawer Height: 19cm (7.5")

LIST PRICE

£2,950.00

