DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # 25595

This is a fascinating antique tarot parlour table. An English, oak centre table richly carved with Zodiac decoration, dating to the Victorian period, circa 1870. A remarkable piece of 19th century craftsmanship, it presents superb visual interest and symbolic artistry, and is ideal for the collector, spiritualist, or a period interior.

- Of fine quality English oak, the table displays wonderful grain interest, highlighted by shimmering medullary rays and warm caramel hues
- The circular top captivates with its extraordinary relief carved decoration
- Featuring the twelve signs of the Zodiac encircling a central dragon with a spiralling tail
- Between each astrological medallion, finely detailed dragon claws lend dramatic texture and depth, demonstrating the skill of a master carver
- The tabletop is supported by a turned baluster column, enriched with collared detail, flowing gracefully into the base
- Standing proudly upon a trio of bold cabriole legs, each terminating in slipper feet, ensuring both stability and elegance in form
- The combination of mythical symbolism and Victorian craftsmanship makes this a table of outstanding dec ...
