

Large Antique 160 Bottle Chateau Wine Rack, French Iron, Cellar Stand, Victorian

DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # 25649

This is a large antique 160-bottle chateau wine rack. A French, wrought iron cellar stand, dating to the early Victorian period, circa 1850. Of impressive scale and provincial charm, this wrought iron rack offers exceptional storage capacity and presence, perfect for the connoisseur, collector, or hospitality setting.

- Originating from France, dating to the early Victorian period, circa 1850
- Crafted from substantial wrought iron, displaying fine craftsmanship and enduring strength
- Double-sided design allows for 160 standard wine bottles, stored neck to neck for efficiency
- Individual bottle openings measure 9.5cm wide, with a 3.5cm neck diameter, suitable for standard Bordeaux and Burgundy bottles
- Robust construction provides excellent stability with a reassuring weight and solid presence
- Raised upon a quartet of bun feet, offering subtle elevation and balance
- Hand-forged joints and detailing present a wonderful rustic aesthetic with provincial charm

DIMENSIONS

- Max Width: 92cm (36.25")
- Max Depth: 37cm (14.5")
- Max Height: 120.5cm (47.5")

+44 (0) 207 1835 511
 This wine rack is ideal for restaurants, or chateau cellars, offering London Fine Antiques visual appeal

• Equally suited for private collectors or larger courtesies, The Old Whiteways Cider Factory
 Hele, Devon, EX5 4PW

sales@londonfine.co.uk
 E. & O. E.

Search London Fine for #25649 or scan the QR code for more photos and details