

Antique Parlour Games Compendium, English, Gaming Box, Chess, Cards, Victorian

DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # 25667

This is an antique games compendium. An English, mahogany gaming case by Gale & Lawday, dating to the Victorian period, circa 1880. A superb and comprehensive set, this compendium offers a wealth of classic games within an elegant and comprehensive presentation box – a true celebration of Victorian leisure and craftsmanship.

- Mahogany case of fine quality with beautiful grain interest and rich caramel hues
- Produced by the esteemed makers Gale & Lawday, Liverpool and London
- Set across two tiers – an upper section with fitted tray and a drawer below
- Dressed to the fascia with an oval lock escutcheon –untested, key absent
- Upper section contains counters, playing cards, and a variety of game pieces
- Lower drawer hosts a fine selection of chess pieces, dominoes, and instruction manuals
- Held securely from above by a long pin, the drawer fascia with recessed brass handle
- Unmarked brass oval plaque to the lid offers an opportunity to personalise if required

DIMENSIONS

Max Width: 44cm (17.25")
 Max Depth: 24.5cm (9.75")
 Max Height: 18cm (7")

LIST PRICE

£2,950.00

• Lid interior hosts the Chess board, behind which sits a marble solitaire board, with a 44cm x 207cm x 183cm x 151cm

Search London Fine for #25667, or scan the QR code for more photos and details
 London Fine Ltd
 The Antique Village
 The Old Whiteways Cider Factory
 Hele, Devon, EX5 4PW

sales@londonfine.co.uk

E. & O. E.