

Set of 12 Antique Dining Chairs, English, Carver, Seat, Hepplewhite, Edwardian

DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # 25677

This is an elegant set of 12 antique dining chairs. An English, mahogany carver and chair suite in Hepplewhite taste, dating to the Edwardian period, circa 1910. A comprehensive and beautifully crafted suite comprising two carvers and ten side chairs, this collection embodies the refinement and grace of Georgian revival design, perfectly suited to the grand dining room or formal entertaining space.

- Inspired by the classic Hepplewhite style, showcasing elegance and symmetry
- Constructed from select mahogany stocks, displaying fine grain interest and deep caramel hues
- Suite comprises 12 chairs in total – a pair of grand carvers and ten slipper chairs
- Each chair professionally reupholstered in a tasteful herringbone silk-cotton textile
- Champagne-toned upholstery complements the rich warmth of the mahogany frames
 - Distinctive Hepplewhite backrests feature a wheatsheaf motif set within a spade-shaped splat
- Carver chairs with graceful outward arms, supported by canted front supports
- Seat heights matched across the two forms at a comfortable 45.5cm (18")
