

Antique Map, The Environs of London, English, Framed City Plan, Victorian, 1850

DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # 25502

This is an antique map, The Environs of London. An English, framed city map with hand coloured detail, dating to the early Victorian period, circa 1850. A wonderfully presented, hand-coloured map of the City of London and the surrounding boroughs, tastefully mounted within a later frame.

- Quality engraving on paper from the original cartography
- Colour used to key the city in red, parks in green and the Thames in blue
- Presented behind clear glass within an ebonised frame with gilt border
- Framed dressed to the tear with mounting braid for ease of hanging
- Maps London from Tottenham Park in the North to Bromley Hill in the south
- From the West at Richmond across to the eastern reaches of lower Essex and North West Kent
- Individual street detail to the city shows a keen eye for cartographical accuracy
- Bears the name of map publisher Charles Kent with his premises given within the city as 90 Fleet Street
