

Antique South America Map, English, Framed Cartography, De La Rochette, Georgian

DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # 25610

This is a superb antique map of South America. An English, framed cartographic engraving by Louis Stanislas De La Rochette, dating to the Georgian period and later, circa 1790. A fascinating example of late 18th century mapping, elegantly presented for display.

- Delightful Georgian period cartography depicting the continent of South America in fine detail
- Engraved by De La Rochette and printed in London for John Bowles, publisher of fine maps and atlases
- Drawn with reference to the acclaimed work of Jean-Baptiste Bourguignon d'Anville (1697–1782)
- d'Anville was noted for his scientific precision and influence on 18th century geography

- Set within a later antique frame, displaying a time-worn patina and gentle signs of age
- Presented behind clear glazing for protection and clarity of viewing
- Dressed to the rear with mounting wire ready for ease of hanging and immediate display

+44 (0) 20 71833 5111
A fine example of a Georgian map, showing a high level of detail, illustrating early territorial divisions, political boundaries, and natural features

DIMENSIONS

Max Width: 73cm (28.75")
Max Depth: 3cm (1.25")
Max Height: 56cm (22")
Map Width: 66cm (26")
Map Height: 49cm (19.25")

LIST PRICE

£895.00

A fine example of Georgian cartographic art, this antique map is a superb example of the art of map-making. It is a rare and valuable item, and a fine example of the art of map-making. It is a rare and valuable item, and a fine example of the art of map-making.

London Fine Antiques Ltd
The Antique Village
The Old Whiteways Cider Factory
Holt, Devon, EX5 4PW

sales@londonfine.co.uk
E. & O. E.