

Antique Parlour Table, English, Supper, Card, Occasional, Georgian, Circa 1790

DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # 25642

This is a superb antique parlour table. An English, mahogany supper or card table, dating to the Georgian period, circa 1790. A wonderfully figured example displaying appealing colour, elegant proportion, and fine craftsmanship throughout.

- class="p1">Delightful Georgian period parlour or supper table, ideal for the intimate dining room or drawing room
- class="p1">Select stocks display deep caramel hues and fine grain interest beneath a rich wax polish finish
- class="p1">Generous circular top, perfectly suited for small gatherings, supper, or games of cards
- class="p1">Gently aged patina offers desirable character commensurate with age and
- class="p1">Broad baluster support unites the top to the tripod base in graceful proportion
- class="p1">Standing upon classic cabriole legs, adorned with prominent knees and elegant pad feet

class="n1">In good antique order offering both stability and timeless presence

DIMENSIONS

Max Width: 77.5cm (30.5") Max Depth: 77.5cm (30.5") Max Height: 69cm (27.25")

LIST PRICE

£2,450.00

