

Antique Patio Planter, English, Terracotta Ornamental Tree Jardiniere, Victorian

DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # 25582

This is an antique patio planter. An English, terracotta ornamental tree or jardiniere pot, dating to the late Victorian period, circa 1900. A charming veranda or patio planter presenting a beautifully weathered appearance and timeless decorative appeal.

- Delightful Victorian terracotta planter, ideal for veranda, patio, or garden display
- Presents a warm amber hue, enriched with gentle weathering and aged patina
- Fascia adorned with foliate scroll relief, offering a touch of classical elegance
- Generous proportions suitable for small trees, rose bushes, or herbs
- Crafted from quality terracotta, displaying a reassuringly solid, tactile feel
- Rounded rim and tapering form add pleasing balance to the silhouette
- In good antique order, displaying natural age commensurate with outdoor use

This is a superb late Victorian terracotta patio planter, offering fine decorative presence and practical use for the traditional home or garden. Delivered ready for display.

Search London Fine for #25582 , or scan the QR code for more photos and details

DIMENSIONS

Max Width: 42.5cm (16.75")

Max Depth: 42.5cm (16.75")

Max Height: 31.5cm (12.5")

LIST PRICE

£495.00

