

Antique Lincolnshire Map, English, County Cartography, Robert Morden, Victorian

DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # 25626

This is a fine antique county map of Lincolnshire. An English, framed reproduction engraving, dating to the Victorian period and later, circa 1900.

A superb cartographic reproduction originally charted by Robert Morden in the late 17th century. With its hand-coloured detailing and charming aged appearance, this piece makes a wonderful display for the study, hallway, or library.

- Faithful county cartography reproduction, capturing a historic period of Lincolnshire
  - Originally charted by Robert Morden, one of England's most esteemed early mapmakers
  - Displays a desirable aged patina and remains in good order throughout
  - Presented behind clear glass within a tasteful later glazed frame
- Fascinating level of cartographic detail, illustrating administrative regions, rivers, and historic towns
  - Displays Wapon Taks - an alternative form of Wapentake, the county equivalent of political Hundreds
  - Fine detail given to The Wash, the tidal estuary between Lincolnshire and Norfolk
  - Hand coloured palette accentuates borders and settlements with period accuracy
  - Dressed to the rear with a hanging braid, ensuring ease of display upon a

DIMENSIONS

- Max Width: 55cm (21.75")
- Max Depth: 2.5cm (1")
- Max Height: 50cm (19.75")
- Map Width: 41.5cm (16.25")
- Map Height: 35.5cm (14")

LIST PRICE

£685.00

