

Antique Canterbury, English, Country House, Magazine Rack, William IV, C.1835

DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # 25596

This is an antique Canterbury. An English, rosewood three division magazine rack, dating to the William IV period, circa 1835. A visually striking example of fine craftsmanship, displaying excellent proportion and decorative finesse.

- Superb, large country house example with a wonderful appearance
- Select stocks present fine grain interest with rich caramel and russet hues
- Beautifully crafted scroll and foliate fretwork adorns the divisions, united by elegant turned rails
- Three divisions offer practical storage for magazines, papers or folios
- Usefully sized drawer to the fascia, dressed with a pair of circular rosewood pulls
- Drawer boxes crafted from quality mahogany, demonstrating fine cabinetmaking skill
- Standing upon short turned legs, riding smoothly upon original brass castors
- Displays a gently time-worn patina, enhancing its distinguished character

This is a superb antique Canterbury, boasting refined William IV craftsmanship and timeless appeal. Ideal for the discerning collector or elegant sitting room. Solid joints and construction, delivered ready for the home.
