

Vintage Marquetry Coffee Table, English Burr Yew, Art Deco, Modern, Circa 1940

DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # 25781

This is a vintage marquetry coffee table. An English, burr yew decorative centrepiece, dating to the mid 20th century, circa 1940. A fascinating example of early modernism, redolent of the refined style of Mario Sabot or Jean-Claude Mahey.

- Exquisite marquetry craftsmanship, showcasing striking burr yew figuring
- Warm caramel hues and beautiful figuring create an elegant, timeless appearance
- Generous table top offers excellent proportion and decorative impact
- Distinctive base design, united with an ebonised collar for a striking visual contrast

• The table displays early modernist sensibilities, combining sophistication with sculptural balance

• Perfectly suited as a statement coffee table, centrepiece, or conversation piece within a refined lounge setting

- In excellent vintage condition, displaying gentle patina commensurate with age

This is a superb mid-century marquetry coffee table, offering elegant modernist charm and exceptional English craftsmanship. Delivered ready to enjoy.
