

Tall Antique Taxidermy Dome, English, Glass, Collector's Display, Late Victorian

DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # 25265

This is a tall antique taxidermy dome. An English, glass and mahogany collector's display or ornamental showcase, dating to the late Victorian period, circa 1900. A charming display dome of fine proportion and elegant presentation, ideal for prized ornaments or natural history exhibits.

- Quality Victorian craftsmanship, combining clear glass with a mahogany base
- Generous 20-inch display height, suitable for small to medium-sized exhibits
  - Bright, clear glass in good antique order, offering excellent visibility for interior display pieces
  - Tiered mahogany base displays rich caramel hues and fine grain interest
- Inset suede leather pad provides a soft, protective surface for valuable ornaments
- Raised upon a trio of squat bun feet, providing a stable and elegant stance
- Ideal for taxidermy, botanical arrangements, or curiosity cabinet displays
- Displays a desirable aged patina, consistent with careful Victorian preservation

This is a delightful tall antique display dome, offering excellent proportion, clarity, and presentation for collectors or decorative interiors. Delivered ready to enjoy
