

Pair Of Antique Side Chairs, Oriental, Lacquered, Elbow Seats, Cane, Victorian

DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # 25711

This is a pair of antique side chairs. An Oriental, lacquered elbow seat with cane squabs, dating to the Victorian period, circa 1880. Attractive and well-proportioned, these chairs delight with their rich lacquer finish and elegant form.

- class="p1">Striking Oriental craftsmanship, graced with wonderful colour and aesthetic appeal
- class="p1">Resplendent in russet lacquer, exhibiting a pleasing depth of tone and aged lustre
- class="p1">Serpentine crest rail and shaped back splat contrast beautifully with the square lower section
- Decorative frieze with relief carving lends an ornate touch to the back rest class="p1">Bowed arms sweep gracefully outward, supported by twin vertical posts class="p1">Seats host taut cane inserts, gently time-worn and full of character class="p1">Square section legs united by stretcher rails for strength and stability class="p1">Fretwork detail to the apron corners adds refinement to the form
