

Pair Of Antique Side Chairs, Oriental, Lacquered, Elbow Seats, Cane, Victorian

DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # 25711

This is a pair of antique side chairs. An Oriental, lacquered elbow seat with cane squabs, dating to the Victorian period, circa 1880. Attractive and well-proportioned, these chairs delight with their rich lacquer finish and elegant form.

- Striking Oriental craftsmanship, graced with wonderful colour and aesthetic appeal
- Resplendent in russet lacquer, exhibiting a pleasing depth of tone and aged lustre
- Serpentine crest rail and shaped back splat contrast beautifully with the square lower section
- Decorative frieze with relief carving lends an ornate touch to the back rest
- Bowed arms sweep gracefully outward, supported by twin vertical posts
- Seats host taut cane inserts, gently time-worn and full of character
- Square section legs united by stretcher rails for strength and stability
- Fretwork detail to the apron corners adds refinement to the form

This is a superb pair of antique side chairs, with rich lacquer tones and elegant Oriental craftsmanship. Solid joints and construction, delivered ready for the home.
