

Antique Travelling Trader's Altar, Oriental Teak Stand, Folding Table, Victorian

DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # 25716

This is an antique travelling trader's altar. An Oriental, carved teak folding display stand, dating to the Victorian period, circa 1870. A fascinating example of campaign-style furniture, showcasing superb craftsmanship and ornate carved detail.

- Profusely carved craftsmanship, displaying remarkable artistry and cultural symbolism
- Select teak stocks present fine grain interest and deep caramel hues throughout
- Superb altar top with a distinctive shield-shaped centre, surrounded by ornate corner carvings
- Corners feature dragon and symbolic motif carvings, rich with Eastern iconography
- Fascia adorned with relief-carved dragons, adding bold visual texture and mythological appeal
- Folding tripod design, the legs collapsing neatly in three parts for compact transport
 - Ingeniously designed to form a self-contained trunk for carriage — ideal for travelling traders or field use
 - Displays a beautiful aged patina, commensurate with age and careful use
