

Antique 4 Seat Occasional Table, English, Walnut, Tilt Top, Pie Crust, Georgian

DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # 25717

This is an antique 4 seat occasional table. An English, walnut and mahogany tilt-top pie crust serving table, dating to the Georgian period, circa 1800. A superbly crafted and generously proportioned example of fine Georgian furniture, displaying elegance and versatility.

- Exceptional Georgian craftsmanship, presenting a fine marriage of walnut and mahogany timbers
- Select walnut stocks display attractive grain interest and rich caramel hues throughout
- Beautiful pie crust edge to the top, with eye-catching figuring and exquisite hand-carved definition
- Tilting top articulates through 90 degrees, allowing for ease of storage and impressive presentation when raised
- Mahogany support column displays deep russet tones, uniting with the tripod base
- Elegant trio of cabriole legs, each with pronounced knees and classic pad feet
- Of useful, generous proportion, comfortably seating four for light supper, tea, or display use
