

Antique Grand Tour Planter, Italian, Bronze, Bouquet Vase, Urn, Early Victorian

DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # 25684

This is an antique Grand Tour planter. An Italian, bronze decorative bouquet vase dating to the early Victorian period, circa 1850. A delightful piece of Grand Tour craftsmanship, rich with classical charm and fine ornamental detail.

class="p1">Solid bronze body presenting a deep, time-worn patina consistent with age class="p1">Broad, flared rim gracefully tapering to a narrower waist and defined footer class="p1">Fascia adorned with relief cast Putti, adding superb visual interest and classical allure

Cabochon motif brings an additional decorative flourish to the surface class="p1">Stands upon a tapering circular foot, finished with lobe and bead detailing cli class="p1">Substantial and well-balanced at 2.45kg (5.4 lb) - an appealing display piece for flowers, foliage, or as a sculptural ornament

Dressed to the base with a leather cushion for surface protection

DIMENSIONS

Max Width: 20cm (7.75")
Max Depth: 20cm (7.75")
Max Height: 26cm (10.25")
Internal Diameter: 12.5cm (5")

LIST PRICE

£2,250.00

A charming and evocative Grand Tour bronze ideal for collectors of 19th century Italian