

Antique Fire Grate, English, Wrought Iron, Fireplace Basket, Edwardian, C.1910

DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # 25361

This is an antique fire grate. An English, wrought iron estate-made fireplace basket dating to the Edwardian period, circa 1910. An attractive country house piece with appealing decorative detail and robust construction.

- Substantial wrought iron, displaying a gently weathered appearance in keeping with age

- Deep profile with an open-sided form for increased airflow and effective burning
- Canted front and rear fascia, lending a distinctive, traditional silhouette
- Fascia adorned with rolled leaf detailing, adding decorative charm to the whole
- Striking scrolled leaf feet to the fore, partnered with smaller rear feet for stability
 - Ideal for all fuel types, including coal, kindling and logs, suiting a variety of fireplaces

A fine Edwardian wrought iron fire grate, offering both utility and aesthetic appeal for the discerning period home. Delivered ready for the home.
