

Antique Gentleman's Tallboy, Chest of Drawers, Country House, Georgian, C.1790

DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # 25602

This is an antique gentleman's tallboy. An English, mahogany chest of drawers, dating to the Georgian period, circa 1790. A wonderfully complete late 18th century example, displaying elegance, proportion and craftsmanship.

- Attractive Georgian tallboy with timeless country house presence
- Select stocks present fine grain interest and warm caramel hues
- Arranged in the classic two short over three long drawer configuration
- Each drawer fascia dressed with brass handles on decorative oval backplates
- Oak drawer boxes glide smoothly and pull with a reassuring solidity
- Brass lock escutcheons to every drawer front — key absent
- Standing upon a quartet of ogee bracket feet, lending refinement to the stance
- Ideal for clothing, linens or refined bedroom storage within a period setting

A distinguished gentleman's tallboy of excellent Georgian craftsmanship. A fine choice for collectors, period interiors, or those seeking antique character with practical storage. Solid joints and construction, delivered ready for the home.
