

Antique Jardiniere Stand, English, Walnut, Marble, Planter Table, William IV

DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # 25665

This is an antique jardiniere stand. An English, walnut and marble lamp or planter table, dating to the William IV period, circa 1835. A beautifully crafted example, offering superb material quality and a distinguished decorative presence.

- Elegant William IV planter stand, ideal as a lamp table or for presenting a prized jardiniere

- Select walnut stocks display fine grain interest with deep caramel hues
- Attractive display plinth hosts a wonderful, inset white marble medallion
- The tiered and rolled fascia lends appealing distinction and refinement

- Striking support column dressed with long tulip-carved detailing over neatly turned collars

- Graceful baluster and tulip collar transition between the plinth and supporting base
- Confident tripod base with a deep three pointed form
- Superb tulip-carved feet provide stable grounding and visual harmony
- Well suited for displaying plants, sculpture, or lighting within a tastefully appointed interior
