

Antique Cooped Stick Stand, English, Oak, Barrel, Umbrella Loop, Victorian

DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # 25704

This is an antique coopered stick stand. An English, oak barrel umbrella loop, dating to the late Victorian period, circa 1900. A wonderfully robust and characterful piece, ideal for the country house entrance or courtyard.

- Charming Victorian stick stand with excellent country house presence
- Select oak staves display warm caramel hues and pleasing grain interest
- Attractive half-barrel form, offering a generous capacity for walking sticks, canes or umbrellas
- Shows authentic ageing commensurate with careful, long-term use
- Upper edge set with a four-division cross member, helping organise and steady stored items
- Engraved to the upper rim with the maker's name S. Brown, enhancing its period appeal
- Cast iron bolt fittings bind the staves securely, providing lasting stability and a confident, weighty feel
- The industrial craftsmanship results in an impressive weight of 17.6kg (38.8 lb)
