

Antique Turned Doorstop, Scottish, Oak, Country House, Door Keeper, Victorian

DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # 25732

This is an antique turned doorstop. A Scottish, oak country house door keeper, dating to the Victorian period, circa 1860. A substantial and beautifully figured example, offering dependable practicality and fine decorative appeal.

- class="p1">Delightful Victorian doorstop with excellent country house character
- Turned oak displays superb grain interest and rich caramel hues
- Attractive, tactile form with a smooth finish and gently aged patina
- class="p1">Offers a good, confident weight at 1.796kg (3.959 lb), ideal for securing medium-sized doors
- class="p1">Well balanced and comfortable in the hand, making it easy to position as required class="p1">A tasteful yet robust addition to any hallway, study or domestic interior

This is a charming Scottish oak door keeper, combining utility with classic Victorian craftsmanship. An inviting finishing touch for traditional homes. Solid joints and construction, delivered ready for the home.

Search London Fine for #25732 , or scan the QR code for more photos and details

DIMENSIONS

Max Width: 12.5cm (5") Max Depth: 12.5cm (5") Max Height: 21.5cm (8.5")

LIST PRICE

£595.00

