

Antique Pier Cabinet, English, Walnut, Glazed Display Bookcase, Victorian, 1860

DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # 25747

This is an antique pier cabinet. An English, walnut and ormolu glazed display or bookcase, dating to the Victorian period, circa 1860. An exceptional example, notable for its refined craftsmanship and particularly elegant, glazed door.

- Beautiful Victorian pier cabinet with superb presence and decorative appeal
- Select walnut stocks present fine grain interest and rich caramel hues
- Displays a desirable aged patina, in very good order throughout
- Striking glazed door with clear, bright glass and attractively shaped frame edges
- Sarcophagus top adds a sense of distinction above the cabinet
- Door fitted with an ormolu lock escutcheon — in working order, key present
- Glazed door and sides offer a bright, inviting view of the interior
- Interior dressed in a rich wine red velvet, ideal for displaying treasured items
- Ormolu mounts enrich the fascia with warm golden tones and relief detailing

Search London Fine for #25747 , or scan the QR code for more photos and details

DIMENSIONS

Max Width: 76cm (30")
 Max Depth: 30cm (11.75")
 Max Height: 111.5cm (44")
 Shelf Depth: 23cm (9")

LIST PRICE

£3,450.00

